Surfing Florida: A Photographic History

MARCH 17–MAY 12, SCHMIDT CENTER GALLERY

Opening Reception: Friday, March 16, 7 - 9 pm / Florida has produced a number of contributions to the global history, culture and industry of surfing. Through narrative histories, photographers’ portfolios and multi-media stations, this exhibition repositions the awareness of Florida’s huge and rich surf history while also elucidating wider themes – maritime history, spirituality, environmentalism, music – which have strongly affected popular culture since the 1960s. This traveling exhibition will be presented in most of the seven coastal regions that are documented in the exhibition and include a series of public film screenings, lectures by “surf scholars,” and a richly illustrated exhibition book. The project is made possible in part by a grant from the Florida Humanities Council and several collaborating surf history organizations and community volunteers.

Tibetan Sand Mandala: A Ritual Art of Peace

FEBRUARY 20–MARCH 2, SCHMIDT CENTER GALLERY / Painting with colored sands is one of the most exquisite and unique expressions of Tantric Buddhism. In Tibet, this art is called dul-tson-kyil-khor, which literally means “mandala of colored powders.” Over several days, visiting Tibetan monks will create an intricate work made from millions of grains of colored sands. Public opening and closing rituals are an integral part of the program and a public lecture will provide insights into the philosophies and practices related to this enduring mystical art. The project is presented in collaboration with and made possible by FAU’s Peace Studies Program.

Palm Beach Boys & Girls Club Photography Exhibition

MONDAY, MARCH 26, 2 & 7 PM, CALDWELL THEATRE / We never know what to expect with Willy Claflin! Featuring intergalactic yarns, counterculture misadventures and a tribute to Florida folk great Gamble Rogers, Willy’s hilarious shows cover the spectrum of spoken word entertainment. An accomplished guitarist, singer-songwriter and narrative ballad specialist, Willy accompanies himself or croons a splendid a capella baritone.

Shakespeare, Lincoln, Frankenstein and Me
With Jon Spelman
MONDAY, APRIL 30, 2 & 7 PM, CALDWELL THEATRE / William Shakespeare, Abraham Lincoln and Dr. Frankenstein’s monster – together again for the first time! A “storyteller’s storyteller,” Jon Spelman brings to life his personal and professional experiences with some of the world’s greatest literature in this eclectic and electric show.
