Chairman Robert Stilley convened the full board meeting of the Florida Atlantic University Board of Trustees with the following members participating:

The following university officials participated:

Dr. Mary Jane Saunders, University President; Dr. Brenda Claiborne, Provost and Chief Academic Officer; Mr. David Kian, General Counsel; Mr. Dennis Crudele, Senior Vice President for Financial Affairs; Dr. Jennifer O’Flannery-Anderson, Vice President of Community Engagement and Executive Director, FAU Foundation, Inc.; and Mr. Ron Bulger, Executive Administrator and BOT Liaison.

I. Call to Order and Roll Call
Chairman Robert Stilley convened the full board meeting. Roll was taken and a quorum was present.

II. Chair’s Report
Trustee Stilley opened his comments with FAU’s 2012 Business of the Year award from the Boca Chamber of Commerce. On April 26th, Trustee Moabery won the Biggest Heart award from the Men with Caring Hearts. This is bestowed to members of the community who are philanthropic leaders, who are committed to dedication and effectiveness of individuals of the community-at-large.
FAU received close to a million dollar research project from the NIH looking at osteoarthritis. The principle investigator is Dr. Keith Brew. The second project is almost a two-million dollar project from NIH focused on implementing interventions to reduce hospitalizations of nursing home residents. Drs. Joseph Ouslander and Ruth Tappen are the principle investigators on the project.

Some task force groups related to higher education have been created throughout the state. They include the BOG Task Force on Facilities Funding, which has appointed Trustee Barbar and V.P. for Facilities Tom Donaudy. The governor has created a Blue Ribbon Task Force on state higher education reform. A third task force is the BOG’s group on Degree Access and Attainment.

Trustee Stilley concluded that the state is looking at universities very closely. The FAU community needs to keep selling the university to the legislators, people in the community and our friends on the economic and business side.

III. President’s Report

President Saunders said the strategic planning process the board approved was extremely timely. A couple of features of the plan that the entire system will take notice of include the hiring of faculty and the signature themes. Professor Kevin Lanning will spearhead the contemporary societal issues project.

Spring commencement was our largest graduating class ever with 2,901 students. We honored three Tuskegee Airmen, Marvin Weiner, and Jaime Borras at the five ceremonies.

Some good news throughout the University includes:

- Six of our students at FAU High received merit scholar recognition.
- Dr. Len Berry, director for the FAU Florida Center of Environmental Studies, testified before the US Senate Committee on Energy and National Resources in Washington D.C.
- FAU Ocean Engineering junior Christina Zurilli was named Technology Student Leader of the Year by the Miami Chamber of Commerce.
• FAU was recognized as leader in awarding degrees to Hispanic students. FAU is 13th in the nation for Masters and Doctoral degrees awarded to Hispanics in 2010-11.
• FAU’s baseball team won the regular season conference championship.

IX. BOT Member Comments
Trustee Teske is amazed by the dollar value and research being done by the university. Trustee Tanner echoed Trustee Teske’s comments and was glad to see the research was divided up well throughout the departments. Trustee Feder noted that the FAU Athletics Golf Tournament is a first-class tournament. They were able keep a lot of dollars raised, which is unusual for this type of tournament. Trustee Plymale thanked the deans, Dr. O’Flannery-Anderson and Dr. Rosson for their time with the Business Development Board of Martin County. Trustee Barbar commented that FAU has a huge impact on the local community and surrounding areas. Trustee Workman said the FAU Foundation has seven new members and they are discussing new ways to raise money. Trustee Rubin said the new Community and Governmental Relations Committee is working on a branding and marketing campaign. Trustee Graham-West commented the community and alumni outreach has been impressive. Trustee McDaniel spoke about tenure and the reasons behind it. He thanked the trustees for volunteering their time as the faculty senate president. Trustee Huffman introduced the Student Government Vice President April Turner. They had a three-day retreat to outline goals for the upcoming year and looks forward to being on the board over the next year. Trustee Feingold requested a workshop or further individual briefing on the 2012-13 budget before a final vote by the Board. He also wants FAU to be very careful with the different groups on campus and to be aware of organizations in and outside of the university that promote hatred and bigotry.
