In addition, ALL students need an OWL Card to access the University Library research article data-base on a non-university computer.

1. To obtain an OWL Card, you will need a photo ID and be registered for at least one course within the current semester.
2. OWL Card Services are available on most campuses. To view locations and hours of operation visit: fau.edu/business-services/owt-card/locations.php.

Graduate Student Course Load

Fall and Spring Terms: Graduate students registered for a minimum of 9 credits are considered full-time, registrations for 7 credits are considered 3/4-time, and registrations for 4.5 credits are considered half-time. Exceptions are noted below.

Summer Terms: Graduate students registered for a minimum of 6 credits are considered full-time, registrations for 4.5 credits are considered 3/4-time, and registrations for 3 credits are considered half-time. Exceptions are noted below.

Please Note: Graduate students who hold an assistantship position and are in their last semester and/or enrolled in approved coursework (for example, thesis, dissertation, advanced research, directed independent study, internship, practicum, etc.) remain eligible for full (100%) tuition benefits. The Graduate College will verify enrollment status for graduate tuition waivers by reviewing course registration and communicating directly with academic departments as necessary (Form 14 is no longer used).
Parking and Transportation Tips

All FAU students, faculty and staff are required to have a parking decal to park at any FAU campus. Parking decals and permits are only available online through MyFAU. The link to Parking and Transportation is found under the Money Matters! icon in MyFAU: myfau.fau.edu/. Visit the department website for additional information: www.fau.edu/parking/.

Note: Students should wait at least 24 hours after registering before purchasing a parking decal.

With a student population of over 30,000, finding available parking can be a challenge. The following tips will help make parking on campus easier:

- Allow adequate time to park and walk to your destination, as parking lots can fill up fast (especially during the fall and spring semesters).
- Be flexible in your choice of parking locations. Don’t pick a “favorite” parking spot and always go to that location. Know your options regarding on-campus parking and always have a back-up plan.
- Be willing to walk a moderate distance to get to class.
- Pick a central location and park for the day. Driving around campus between classes searching for parking can be stressful. Once you’ve found a parking spot, plan on leaving your car there and walk from building to building to attend your classes. Your heart will benefit from both the exercise and the reduced stress!
- Know which parking lots are available to students. Most of the parking lots on the main FAU campus are “All Decal” lots and can be utilized by anyone with a current parking decal. Look for blue signage to identify the “All Decal” lots.
- Use the OWL Express Shuttle Service when on the Boca Raton campus – Please download our interactive map for a real-time location of our shuttles: http://fau.etaspot.net/
- Consider alternative means of transportation. FAU offers free transportation through the city of Boca Raton from the Administration Building 10 to the Boca Raton Tri-Rail station located on Yamato. Parking and Transportation now offers a Carpool Parking program, fau.edu/parking/services.php, with reserved parking for participants.
- Blue Light Phones. For emergency help of any kind, do not hesitate to use the Blue Light phones mounted on bright yellow poles. Blue Light phones are located in all parking lots and throughout each FAU campus.
- Keep your cool. The most important thing to remember when parking on any campus is to stay calm; there will be days you have trouble finding parking.
Parking and Transportation Tips

Following are campus-specific parking tips for Davie, downtown Ft. Lauderdale, Jupiter and Boca Raton (main) Campuses.

Davie
The Davie campus has two entrances: College Avenue (main entrance) and Davie Road entrance. The College Avenue entrance offers the closest access to the FAU buildings with parking lots available on both sides of the road from the College Avenue entrance. If the parking lots are full, continue east to the overflow area to locate additional parking.

Traffic and activity on the Davie campus peaks Monday through Thursday before and after the following class times:
- 9:30 a.m. to 12:20 p.m.
- 4:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m.
- 7:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m.

Downtown Ft. Lauderdale
Parking is available in the City of Ft. Lauderdale parking garage on the sixth and seventh floor. The parking garage can be accessed from either the SE First Avenue entrance or the SE Second Avenue entrance. After 5 p.m., student parking is available at the ground-level lot accessed from the SE First Avenue entrance. Mondays are the busiest days for traffic and activity at the downtown Ft. Lauderdale campus. A valid OWL card is required to gain entrance to the parking garage and parking lot.

Jupiter
The city of Jupiter hosts several special events during the year that impact traffic around the Jupiter Campus. During special events such as Arti-Gras, the Italian food festival, classic car and bike shows, and spring training at Roger Dean Stadium, traffic becomes very congested around Parkside Drive, Central Boulevard, and Main Street and is occasionally re-routed. It is best to allow additional time to get on and off campus during these special events.

The Jupiter campus’ Lifelong Learning Society (LLS), fau.edu/llsjupiter holds several sessions during the academic year and has an impact on parking. Allow additional time to locate parking during the times the Lifelong Learning Society is in session.
Parking and Transportation Tips

Boca Raton

The Boca Raton Campus has five entrances. Instead of joining the daily crowd at the Glades Road entrance every day, head for one of the other entrances located at NW 13th Street, NW 20th Street, or Spanish River Boulevard. The least-used entrance is the two-lane road just east of the main Glades Road entrance — it is adjacent to the pond and fountain.

Additional tips for parking on the Boca Raton campus:

- Use the OWL Express Shuttle Service. Parking and Transportation provides a free shuttle service on the Boca Raton campus, making several stops along the campus perimeter.
- Try to avoid the area around the A.D. Henderson University School during peak traffic times. The school is located on the east area of the campus near the 20th Street entrance. Traffic peaks from 7:00 a.m. to 8:00 a.m. and again from 2:15 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. daily.
- The parking lots closest to the classroom buildings fill quickly. However, parking is often available in parking lot 5 — the long, narrow lot on the north side of campus, across from Palm Beach State College.
- Avoid parking lots 15 and 16, unless you have to transact business in the Student Support Services building. Parking lots 15 and 16 are always crowded because of the number of people who frequent the Student Union and the large number of employees who work in the Student Support Services building and the Student Union.
Graduate Student Requirements

The graduate student experience is different from that of an undergraduate student. It is important for graduate students to manage their academic careers and stay knowledgeable about current graduate requirements and guidelines. It is beneficial for students to familiarize themselves with these requirements early in their course of study. Doing so enables students to progress seamlessly toward their degrees while maintaining full compliance with University graduate student requirements. For assistance with graduate policies, please contact your academic department or the Graduate College.

Academic Policies and Regulations

There are a number of University regulations that govern graduate education at FAU. The online University Catalog is the most comprehensive resource regarding University, college-specific, and graduate degree program information. At a minimum, graduate students should review “Additional Policies for Graduate Students” under Academic Policies & Regulations and “Graduate Degree Requirements” within the Degree Requirements section. These sections can be found under the catalogs General Information section. Visit the Registrar’s website at fau.edu/registrar to access the University Catalog.

Continuous Enrollment: Graduate students are required to enroll for at least 1 credit during at least two semesters (fall, spring or summer) of every academic year in order to remain eligible for the degree. Students who have been admitted to candidacy normally should enroll in the Thesis (6971) or Dissertation (7980) course in their departments. Those who have not yet been admitted to candidacy, but do not need to take additional courses, should enroll in an appropriate Directed Independent Study course or Advanced Research course.

Students who fail to maintain continuous enrollment, as defined above, lose their eligibility for the degree. In such cases, students are required to submit a new application and pay a new $30 application fee. In addition, students may be required to register for additional credits of Directed Independent Study, Thesis or Dissertation in an amount equal to the number of such credits missed while not continuously enrolled.

Satisfactory Academic Performance and GPA: To remain in good academic standing, each graduate student at Florida Atlantic University must maintain a satisfactory record. The minimum University-wide, cumulative GPA requirement for degree-seeking graduate students is a 3.0. Note: Individual graduate programs may specify more stringent or specialized requirements beyond this minimum requirement.

Note: Individual degree programs may have stricter requirements for maintaining satisfactory academic performance and these requirements must be met. There is also no grade forgiveness policy for graduate students.
Honor Code, Irregularities, and Student’s Academic Grievances

Students at Florida Atlantic University are expected to maintain the highest ethical standards. Academic dishonesty is considered a serious breach of ethical standards as it interferes with the University mission to provide a high-quality education in which no student enjoys an unfair advantage over any other. Academic dishonesty is also destructive to the University community, which is grounded in a system of mutual trust and places high value on personal integrity and individual responsibility. Students with a grievance against an instructor regarding academic matters should follow the Academic Grievance Procedure under the Academic Policies and Regulations section of the University Catalog.

Plan of Study

After enrolling in a degree program at FAU, all degree-seeking students are required to complete a Plan of Study (POS) online. A POS is a list of all courses a student is required to take to meet the requirements for their degree. It serves as a contract between the student and FAU by clearly communicating the courses needed to obtain their graduate degree. Typically, a POS is submitted no later than halfway through their required coursework and before enrolling in thesis/dissertation credits, if applicable. Students must have an approved POS on file with the Graduate College prior to the term they intend to graduate. All students receive electronic confirmation when their POS is approved by the Graduate College.

Plans of Study are submitted online through the MyPOS system. To access the online MyPOS system:

1. Log in to your MyFAU account: myfau.fau.edu.
2. Click on the MyPOS icon.
3. Follow the prompts.

The Degree Completion staff at the Graduate College can answer your questions about MyPOS. Email graduatesupport@fau.edu, call 561-297-2203, or visit Building SU-80, Suite 106 for assistance.
Graduate Student Resources

Student Support
The Graduate College offers workshops, events, and resources to assist graduate students throughout the course of their studies. Some of the regularly scheduled workshops include: Developing and Formatting Thesis and Dissertations, Three Minute Thesis (3MT®) Competition, and GPSA Research Day. There are various other professional and personal development workshops offered to students throughout the year. For a list of upcoming workshops, please visit: fau.edu/graduate/events/index.php.

Financing Your Education

Fellowships
The Graduate College administers the application and award process for several graduate fellowships. Please visit the Graduate College website to view a comprehensive list of fellowships available to FAU graduate students: fau.edu/graduate/current-students/fellowships-and-awards.php.

Scholarships
Three-Minute (3MT®) Thesis Competition Scholarships (fau.edu/graduate/3MT.php)
An 80,000 word thesis would take 9 hours to present. Their time limit...3 minutes. The goal of the 3MT® competition is for FAU graduate students from all departments and colleges to cultivate the ability to explain their research, including both breadth and significance, in a language appropriate to an audience containing both specialists and non-specialists. Graduate students must present their research in 3 minutes and are allowed one PowerPoint slide, but no other resources or props. Students compete in a heat specific to their discipline; the First Place, Runner-Up, Second Runner-Up, and People’s Choice winners from each heat advance to the Championship. Scholarship prizes up to $2,500 are awarded to both Heat and Championship winners. Audience members determine the People’s Choice winner by electronic ballot at each Heat and at the Championship.

Information regarding the above-mentioned scholarships can be found on the Graduate College website.

Financial Aid
Graduate students may qualify for a need-based Florida Atlantic University Graduate Grant (FAUGG) by applying for aid through the FAFSA. Funds are limited and awarded based on the availability of funds, so early completion of the FAFSA is encouraged. Submit your FAFSA early. The FAU priority deadline is January 1st each year. Graduate students may be eligible for Federal Work Study, Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loans, Federal Graduate Plus Loans, Fellowships, Assistantships and tuition-reimbursement. Graduate students are NOT eligible to receive certain grants, such as the PELL, SEOG and FSAG grants.
Assistantships

Graduate Assistantships are a way for graduate students to finance their educational studies at Florida Atlantic University. Assistantships are intended to attract high quality, degree-seeking students and provide them with professional experiences while at FAU that will prepare them for their future work. For a position to be classified as a graduate assistant and for the employee to be eligible for tuition benefits, the duties performed must directly contribute to the graduate student’s program of study. The graduate assistant must perform duties under the supervision of at least one faculty member and/or University employee experienced in the discipline.

The University offers assistantships to enrolled, degree-seeking graduate students as follows:

- Graduate Teaching Assistantship (GTA): Graduate Teaching Assistants are responsible for assisting faculty members with teaching, course preparation, grading assignments, and activities related to the student’s academic program such as, but not limited to, teaching an undergraduate level course, co-teaching, tutoring, being a classroom assistant or teaching lab assistant, or other roles directly related to classroom or laboratory instruction.

- Graduate Research Assistantship (GRA): Graduate Research Assistants perform research duties under the supervision of an appropriate faculty member or FAU administrator. Such research duties may include, but are not limited to, assisting in lab research, community-based research activities, developing research and evaluation surveys, collecting data, analyzing data using software analysis programs, data presentation, and/or writing draft research reports. For some Graduate Research Assistant positions, special qualifications may be required, such as completion of a specified number of graduate credit hours or a master’s degree or specialization in an appropriate area of research.

- Graduate Assistantship (GA): Graduate Assistants may be employed in any administrative unit of the University that performs professional duties outside of teaching or research assignments. Duties performed must directly contribute to the graduate student’s program of study. It is the responsibility of the hiring unit to ensure duties of the position complement the degree program; however, for students employed in non-academic offices, prior approval by the Dean of the Graduate College is required.

The process of obtaining an assistantship is competitive. Assistantships are available in many academic departments and administrative offices, although availability varies by the field of study, type of degree, and degree level. Students interested in applying for an assistantship should contact their graduate programs directly. Some general assistantship opportunities may be posted on the FAU Graduate College’s Facebook Page and on the Human Resources Employment Opportunities Page.

Compensation for assistantships includes a partial or full tuition waiver and a stipend. For more information about graduate assistantships, please see the Tuition Benefits Policy for Graduate Students: fau.edu/graduate/tuition-benefits/index.php.

Important Note: Tuition waivers may reduce financial aid awards and it is the student’s responsibility to notify the Office of Student Financial Aid.
