TROUBLING TRENDS IN STUDENT CULTURE

What Public School Resource Officers & Social Workers Want You to Know

THURSDAY, SEPT. 15 | 6:00-7:15PM | VIA ZOOM

Increased violence, frequent substance use, waning mental health - these evolving challenges are requiring social workers and school resource officers (SROs) to take a more front-lines approach and to assess other contributing factors beyond COVID-19 - such as local and state policies, social media and home environments. Join us for an eye-opening discussion with seasoned SROs and school social workers as they share insider perspectives and their top insights for families.
