

The UFS strongly recommends the timely and meaningful inclusion of the faculty in planning and negotiating their research and teaching and instructional space allocations.