

ACADEMIC ACTIONS FOR FRESHMEN

First-semester freshmen who ~~fail to earn~~ are unable to maintain a 2.0 grade point average of 2.0 or better in their coursework ~~will be~~ are required to enter the ACCESS Program in their second semester and abide by the terms of continued enrollment stipulated by their ACCESS academic coach/advisor. Information about the ACCESS Program ~~information~~ may be found in the Student Services and Activities section of this catalog.

Freshmen in their first year who complete their first spring semester (including those starting in the spring semester) with an FAU GPA (undergraduate GPA) below 2.0 (original grades, not the NC grade, are used in the calculation) ~~must~~ are encouraged to enroll in a minimum of 6 credits of summer coursework at FAU. The coursework taken must be chosen in consultation with an academic advisor. Those students who received a grade of "C-" or below, a Withdrawal (W) or an NC grade in their last mathematics course may be required, as well, to first enroll in and successfully complete a math boot camp.

~~Those freshmen on academic suspension at the end of the spring semester will have the suspension deferred to enable them to take summer courses. Suspension will be removed or applied at the end of the summer term based on the new GPA.~~

~~Students who fail to enroll in a minimum of 6 credits of summer coursework at FAU will not be allowed to enroll in fall coursework. Any exception to the summer coursework requirement due to financial and/or personal hardship must be approved through a petition to University Advising Services.~~
