Fall Semester Catalog MSL 1001 Introduction to the Army/Spring Semester Catalog MSL 1002 Foundations of Leadership

ROTC Military Science (MS) I Course and Purpose:

MSL1001 Fall Semester introduces Cadets to the personal challenges and competencies that are critical for effective leadership. Cadets learn how the personal development of life skills such as critical thinking, performance and resilience enhancement skills, and communication will benefit them throughout their life and career. Cadets will begin learning the basics of squad level tactics that will be reinforced during a weekly lab facilitated by MS III Cadets, supervised by MS IVs and Cadre.

MSL1002 Spring semester Cadets learn the basics of the communications process and the importance for leader's to develop the essential skills to effectively communicate in the Army. Cadets will begin learning the basics of squad-level tactics that are reinforced during a weekly lab facilitated by MS III Cadets, supervised by MS IVs and Cadre.

Fall Semester Catalog MSL 2101 Leadership and Ethics/Spring Semester Catalog MSL 2102 Army Doctrine and Decision Making

ROTC MS II Course and Purpose:

MSL 2101 Fall semester focuses on Army Doctrine and Decision Making. The course begins with analytical techniques, creative thinking skills, and the Army problem-solving process as related to situations faced by leaders when making decisions. Troop leading procedures (TLP's) and an operations order (OPORD) will lead Cadets to an understanding of Army Doctrine and Symbology. Cadets are then required to apply their knowledge outside the classroom in a hands-on performance-oriented environment during a weekly lab facilitated by MSL III Cadets and supervised by cadre.

MSL 2102 Spring semester Squad tactics will be covered in classes on Unified Land Operations, Offensive Operations, and Defensive Operations. Cadets are then required to apply their knowledge outside the classroom in a hands-on performance-oriented environment during a weekly lab facilitated by MSL III Cadets and supervised by cadre.

Fall Semester Catalog MSL 3201 Training Management and the Warfighting Functions/Spring Semester Catalog MSL 3202 Applied Leadership in Small Unit Operations

ROTC MS III Course and Purpose:

MSL 3201 Fall semester focuses on applied leadership in small unit operations. It is an academically challenging course where you will study, practice, and apply the fundamentals of direct-level leadership and small-unit tactics at the platoon level. It includes a Lab per week, using peer (MS III) facilitation overseen by MS IVs, and supervised by ROTC Cadre. Successful completion of this course will help prepare cadets for Cadet Summer Training/ Advanced Camp, which you will attend in the summer, at Fort Knox, KY.

MSL 3202 Spring Semester Cadets will be capable of planning, coordinating, navigating, motivating and leading a platoon in the execution of a mission. It includes a Lab per week, using peer (MS III) facilitation overseen by MS IVs, and supervised by ROTC Cadre. Successful completion of this course will help prepare cadets for Cadet Summer Training/ Advanced Camp, which you will attend in the summer, at Fort Knox, KY.

Fall Semester Catalog MSL 4301 The Army Officer/Spring Semester Catalog MSL 4302 Company Grade Leadership

ROTC MS IV Course and Purpose:

MSL 3401 Fall semester class is an academically challenging course where you will develop knowledge, skills, and abilities required of junior officers pertaining to the Army in Unified Land Operations and Company Grade Officer roles and responsibilities.

MSL4302 Spring semester is a follow up of MSL4301 that includes reading assignments, homework assignments, small group assignments, briefings, case studies, practical exercises, a mid-term exam, and an Oral Practicum as the final exam. Successful completion of this course will assist in preparing you for your BOLC B course and is a mandatory requirement for commissioning. Includes a lab per week overseeing MS III lesson facilitation and supervised by ROTC Cadre.

Fall Semester Catalog MSL 4900/Spring Semester Catalog MSL 4900

ROTC PMS Directed Independent Study

Course includes supervised reading and writing assignments of independent study in United States military history.

Spring Semester Catalog MSL 4400 U.S. Military HistoryROTC U.S. Military History

This course covers American military history from the Colonial Period (1600s) through present-day wars. The focus is on the evolution of the United States Army's structure, strategy, tactics and weaponry with an emphasis on the interrelationship of the military establishment with American society. The presentation of material is divided between lectures, video presentations and independent research.

Outcomes and Objectives:

The Army Profession: Live the Army values and build trust

Professional Competence: Demonstrate intellectual, military and physical competence

Adaptability: Think critically and creatively, make sound and timely decisions

Teamwork: Develop, lead and inspire. Communicate and interact effectively

Course Requirements:

Class Participation

You are expected to participate actively in learning through critical reflection, inquiry, dialogue, and group interactions. This includes participating in class discussion, sharing personal perspectives and experiences related to principles discussed in class or student readings, and working with fellow students to engage in class exercises.

-Reading

Doctrinal Publications are available online at <https://armypubs.army.mil/>

Each lesson contains Student Readings to prepare for class.

NOTE: Cadets in MS I's and MS II's are expected to attend lab's, and physical training (PT). Attendance affects class participation grades.

Physical Training

As a future officer, you are expected to set the example for physical fitness according to Army regulations. You will be required to take either a Cadet Fitness Assessment Test (CFAT) or a diagnostic Army Combat Fitness Test (ACFT) at the beginning of the fall semester and a for-record ACFT at the end of the semester (depending on MS level).

Quizzes

Quizzes will be given throughout the semester to assess your progress in learning the principles and practices related to the course material.

Mid-Term Exam

A mid-term exam will be given to assess your knowledge achieved during the first half of the semester.

Final Exam

A cumulative Final Exam will be given to assess your knowledge attained throughout the course of the semester.

Evaluation and Grading:

Class Attendance and Lab/PT Participation	30%
Quizzes & Assignments	30%
Mid-Term Exam	20%
Final Exam	20%

NOTE: For non-Cadet students, AFAT and Service Projects grades are applied into class participation*. Solid performance in each area of evaluation is necessary to earn a grade of "B". The following grading scale will be used based on 100 points possible. Check your University's grading scale for specific letter grades.

Letter	Range (%)
A	90-100
B	80-89
C	70-79
D	60-69

Every attempt will be made to offer adequate written assessments in explaining evaluations. All late papers and assignments will receive a 10% reduction per day in grade until a grade of 0% is reached.

Administrative Information:

Uniforms and Appearance

You are expected to wear operational camouflage pattern (OCPs) to all classes and adhere to Army Regulation 670-1 and Department of the Army Pamphlet 650-1, regarding uniforms and appearance, if issued/available. If not, appropriate casual/business casual. You are expected to wear APFU to PT and adhere to Army Regulation 670-1 if issued/available. If not, PT uniform will be black shorts (appropriate length), and plain black (or dark colored) t-shirt.

NOTE: All contracted Cadets will be required to remain in uniform on days in which they have ROTC classes.

NOTE: Listed below are several additional methods used to assess knowledge and learning that the instructor may choose to implement as course requirements.

Character Development

NOTE: Throughout the year, your individual performance will be evaluated against required MS I-MS IV course end states and developmental outcomes. This evaluation is the PMSs' assessment of your performance against the Army Leadership Requirements Model (ALRM). Each Cadet is responsible and expected to attain (be, know, do) the respective requirements for each MS Level. The tasks are grouped into the ALRM Attributes and Competencies.

Collaboration

You are encouraged to work together with your fellow Cadets and seek guidance and help from your instructor, MSL IV Cadets and another ROTC cadre.

Religious Accommodation

(1) The Army places a high value on the rights of its Soldiers to observe tenets of their respective religions or to observe no religion at all.

(2) The Army will approve requests for accommodation of religious practices unless accommodation will have an adverse impact on unit readiness, individual readiness, unit cohesion, morale, good order, discipline, safety, and/or health.

(3) Requests for religious accommodation generally fall into five major areas:

- Worship practices
- Dietary practices

- Medical practices
- Wear and appearance of the uniform
- Grooming practices

(4) For more information please refer to AR 600-20, Army Command Policy, 6 November 2014, Chapter 5, paragraph 5-6.

Special Needs

The American with Disabilities Act of 1990 requires universities to provide a “reasonable accommodation” to any individual who advises us of a disability. If you have a physical or mental limitation that requires an accommodation or an academic adjustment, please arrange a meeting with either myself or the office student accessibility services.

On-line Conduct

Inappropriate Relationships

Per Army Directive (Protecting Against Prohibited Relations during Recruiting and Entry-Level Training) and IAW Department of Defense Instructions (DoDI) 1304.33 (Protecting Against Inappropriate Relations during Recruiting and Entry Level Training), the Army and all Army personnel (including any Army military, civilian, or contractor personnel) will treat each prospect, applicant, recruit, and trainee with dignity and respect as they pursue their aspiration of serving in the military. Army policy prohibits inappropriate relations between recruiters and prospects, applicants, and/or recruits and between trainers providing entry-level training and trainees. At a minimum and as required, the prospect, applicant, recruit, trainee, recruiter, or trainer will complete the following administrative actions. Commanders may add requirements to this list:

(1) Trainers providing entry-level training will sign DD Form 2982 that acknowledges their understanding of the prohibitions listed in paragraphs 1a(1)(a)-(n) of DoDI 1304.33 and also listed in paragraph 5d (of Army Directive 2016-17) and their responsibilities regarding the policies prohibiting inappropriate behaviors and relations outlined in the instruction. As a minimum the form will be retained in the trainer’s record while they are assigned to training duty and will be revalidated annually.

(2) At the onset of the first training session, trainers will brief trainees on the policies stated in this instruction, and will provide information that trainees can use to contact someone in leadership if they wish to report any issue related to inappropriate conduct.

(3) Trainees will sign a DD Form 2983 acknowledging their understanding and responsibilities as outlined in DoDI 1304.33, no later than the first day of entry-level training. As a minimum, the form will be retained in the trainees file until the trainee detaches from the training command or school.

Online Conduct

(1) As members of the Army Team, our individual actions and interactions, on and off duty, online and offline reflect on the Army and our values. Every Soldier and Army Civilian is responsible to uphold the Army standards and values, applying all aspects into our lives. This includes our online conduct when communicating with any form of electronic media.

(2) Any type of online misconduct such as; harassment, bullying, hazing, stalking, discrimination, or retaliation that undermines the dignity and respect of another individual, is not consistent with Army Values, will NOT be condoned and subject to criminal, disciplinary, and/or administrative action.

(3) It is every individuals' (Soldier, Army Civilian, contractor, and Family member) duty to understand the laws and regulations pertaining to Online Conduct. It is every leader's responsibility to enforce those laws and regulations pertaining to Online Conduct.

(4) For more information please refer to AR 600-20, Army Command Policy, para 1-4, 4-19 and Chapter 7 and AR 600-100.

Sexual Discrimination

Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972 is a federal law that states: No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance.

Discriminatory Harassment

(1) Harassment is behavior that is unwelcome or offensive to a reasonable person, whether oral, written, or physical, that creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive environment. Harassment can occur through electronic communications, including social media, other forms of communication, and in person. Harassment may include offensive jokes, epithets, ridicule or mockery, insults or put-downs, displays of offensive objects or imagery, stereotyping, intimidating acts, veiled threats of violence, threatening or provoking remarks, racial or other slurs, derogatory remarks about a person's accent, or displays of racially offensive symbols.

(2) Activities or actions undertaken for a proper military or governmental purpose, such as combat survival training, are not considered harassment. Discriminatory Harassment is a form of harassment that is unwelcome conduct based on race, color, religion, sex (including gender identity), national origin, or sexual orientation.

(3) The Army will provide equal opportunity and fair treatment for military personnel and Family members without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex (including gender identity), or sexual orientation which are known as the Bases of Discrimination.

(4) The Army will also provide an environment free of unlawful discrimination and offensive behavior. The EO Policy applies both on and off post, during duty and non-duty hours, working, living, recreational environments (both on and off-post housing), and utilizing electronic media.

For updated information, please refer to AR 600-20, Army Command Policy.

Diversity and Inclusion

(1) Initiate a Dialogue and Keep it Up. Nationwide protests following the death of George Floyd renewed the urgency for open conversations on tough topics like race, and at TRADOC we are committed to having the dialogue. I recognize each Soldier, Civilian, and Family Member may perceive and react to the current unrest and other societal situations differently. The TRADOC Leadership Team is here to support the entire TRADOC Family. Open dialogue is critical to helping all of us understand and support each other. At every level and in every position, I expect you to talk to your teammates, work harder to listen and gain a better understanding of different points of view, and seek a better perspective that allows us to see the world through their eyes.

(2) Assess our Policies and Programs. The Army and TRADOC must continue to be a national leader in providing equitable and inclusive opportunities and find ways to eliminate any subcultures that threaten our Army Values. We will conduct a thorough review of our internal policies and programs for potential unintended effects or biases. We will also look for better ways to use existing feedback mechanisms such as the Command Climate Survey, Staff Assistance Visits, Special Emphasis Programs, and Focus Groups to better understand perceptions of the workforce regarding race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, disability, or genetic information. Most importantly, we will take action on the findings and remain committed to creating more opportunity for our entire workforce.

(3) Continue to Increase Diversity of our Total Force. The Army must make acquiring, developing, employing, retaining, and understanding the needs of its diverse force the centerpiece of its competitive advantage or risk losing the war for talent to other entities. Accessions is a major component of our mission. We are ALL on the front lines of ensuring our Army is representative of the country we serve.

(4) Change the Way We Train. Every leader must strive to be more socially aware, compassionate, relate to subordinates and peers, identify discrimination and prejudice, and resolve issues at the lowest level.

For updated information, please refer to AR 600-20, Army Command Policy.

Sexual Harassment/Assault

(1) Across the Total Army, we continue to focus on eradicating sexual harassment and sexual assault from our ranks. We must do everything within our power to rid the Army of these crimes. This is a readiness issue that affects our ability to accomplish our mission. Over the past several years, we have placed a high priority on our prevention efforts, and although we are on the right trajectory, we still have significant room to improve. In all components, sexual assault reporting is increasing, which is an indication that our Soldiers trust their leaders to address the situation in a professional manner. We all have a responsibility to look out for one another - there can be no bystanders. Stay alert when the warning signs become present, and if you see something, ACT! Leaders and Soldiers have an ethical obligation to intervene to stop sexual harassment and sexual assault from happening. Those who do not, violate the Nation's trust and the trust of their peers.

(2) All Soldiers and Civilians have a responsibility to help resolve acts of sexual harassment. Examples of how to accomplish this follows:

- Direct approach. Confront the harasser and tell them that the behavior is not appreciated, not welcomed and that it must stop. Stay focused on the behavior and its impact. Use common courtesy. Write down thoughts before approaching the individual involved.
- Indirect approach. Send a letter to the harasser stating the facts, personal feelings about the inappropriate behavior and expected resolution.
- Third party. Request assistance from another person. Ask someone else to talk to the harasser, to accompany the victim, or to intervene on behalf of the victim to resolve the conflict.
- Chain of command. Report the behavior to immediate supervisor or others in chain of command and ask for assistance in resolving the situation.

- Filing a formal complaint. Details for filing an informal or formal complaint are included in appendix C of Army Regulation 600-20 (Army Command Policy) and follow the same procedures as for an Equal Opportunity complaint.

Prohibited Activities

(1) Military personnel must not actively advocate supremacist, extremist, or criminal gang doctrine, ideology, or causes.

(2) Military personnel must reject active participation in criminal gangs pursuant to section 544 of Public Law 110-181 and in other organizations that advocate supremacist, extremist, or criminal gang doctrine, ideology, or causes.

(3) Prohibited activities include groups or causes that advance, encourage, or advocate illegal discrimination based on race, creed, color, sex, religion, ethnicity, or national origin or those that advance, encourage, or advocate the use of force, violence, or criminal activity or otherwise advance efforts to deprive individuals of their civil rights.

For updated information, please refer to AR 600-20, Army Command Policy.

Suicide Prevention

ACE

Ask: Ask a direct question such as, “Are you thinking about committing suicide?”

Care: Demonstrate care and concern by listening actively and offering help. Stay present with the person so they are not left alone

Escort: Escort the person to talk with an RA, a professor, or another professional
